

Sidney Burngasser
428 Walnut St.
Jackson, TN 38301
731.343.1585
sburngasser@hotmail.com

Sidney Burngasser is a native of Jackson, Tennessee, employed by the Ned R. McWherter West Tennessee Cultural Arts Center. Sidney has a bachelor's degree in journalism/communications from the University of Memphis and a graduate certificate in grant writing from the University of Georgia. He is a past board member of the Jackson Theatre Guild and is involved with organizations, such as the Jackson Arts Council, Jackson Choral Society and Tennesseans for the Arts.

Sidney is a Governor's Scholar of the Arts and has performed in venues, such as Carnegie Hall in New York City, Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas and venues throughout the Mid-South. He has been a featured entertainer at the Miss Tennessee's Outstanding Teen Pageant, Mrs. Tennessee and a variety of Miss America local pageants.